Chicago's Free Trolleys offer daily service to some of the city's most popular museums, shopping destinations and visitor attractions.

From Memorial Day through Labor Day, the free trolleys will travel to and from Navy Pier, the Museum Campus, Lincoln Park Zoo, Michigan Avenue, State Street and the Chinatown/Pilsen neighborhoods, with many stops in between.

Most trolleys run every 20 minutes and provide convenient connections to CTA, Metra and Amtrak stations, where Trolley schedules are usually available.

Green, Gold, Red: The Metra/Shopping/Museums/Navy Pier Lines run daily from 10am to 6pm.

Blue Square: The Navy Pier trolley runs daily during Pier hours.

Brown Circle and Purple Diamond: The Lincoln Park Shuttle and Express trolleys operate from 11am to 7pm weekends and holidays.

Orange Octagon: The Chinatown/Pilsen trolley operates from 10am to 6pm weekends and holidays.

Chicago's Free Trolleys are easy to use. No ticket or reservation is needed – simply catch a trolley at stop marked by a “Free Trolley” sign. The Free Trolleys are marked with signs in their front windows. Riders must board 30 minutes before service ends. [1.877.CHICAGO]

Each trolley route is served by trolleys accessible to people with physical disabilities, and, trolleys can accommodate a stroller when it is folded.
